

AVOCA

*Moss Pitts Lane
Liverpool
L10*

Avoca is a supported living service providing accommodation and support to up to 6 individuals with learning disabilities and mental health needs.

Provides support enabling individuals to maintain their own tenancy, maintain and further develop independent living skills and access local inclusive community activities.

Located close to all buses that go into Liverpool town centre and to Kirkby town centre and also a 5 minutes' walk to the train station.

WE SUPPORT A RANGE OF INDIVIDUALS:

- Learning disabilities
- Mental health
- Communication and mobility issues
- Males and Females
- Ages 18 plus

We support people to achieve all aspects of daily living skills like washing, cleaning and cooking for themselves, and for them to achieve any goals they have. With support, people can develop and achieve what they want. Avoca is a lovely homely service which feels just like home for everyone we support. Everyone has choice in how their own rooms are decorated and how they want the communal areas of the house to look.
