

HEATHFIELD GARDENS

163-165 HIGH STREET
TIBSHELF
DERBYSHIRE

Heathfield Gardens is a Registered Residential service for up to 11 adults with a learning disability, autism and complex needs. The large property has excellent facilities and is located in Tibshelf village in East Derbyshire.

The service offers people with high support needs an individualised package of care and support in a stable environment, to build confidence, develop daily living skills and support to achieve outcomes.

BEING ACTIVE IN YOUR COMMUNITY

-  There are convenience stores a short walk away and Asda and Iceland are a 15 minute drive away.
-  Sutton in Ashfield has lots to do in the community including McCarthy Glen, Shops, pubs and cafes.
-  Tibshelf has a post office, pubs, café, off licence, takeaways, Coop, and a local farm to feed the animals.
-  Alfreton train station is a 10 minute drive for access to Derby, Nottingham and Sheffield.
-  There is a bus stop right outside the service with routes into Chesterfield, Derby City, Alfreton and Nottingham

For people who like to stay active there are an abundance of walks and nature trails to explore including Teatherstall Trails, Silverhill, Five Pit Trails and Briley Park.

People we support enjoy fishing locally and attending Selston Leisure centre where there is a swimming pool, tennis courts, a climbing wall, and the opportunity to go trampolining.
