

PARKVIEW

SALFORD
GRTR MANCHESTER
M6 5WR

Parkview is a residential service supporting up to 9 adults with a range of mental health needs.

Registered with the Care Quality Commission our qualified staff, who are on site 24/7, support people through their recovery journey. They provide support bespoke to each person's needs and ability - promoting their independence and integration into the community.

BEING ACTIVE IN YOUR COMMUNITY

-  We're spoilt for choice with supermarkets – Tesco, Lidl, Aldi and Home and Bargains are just a short distance.
-  GP practices are all within walking distance.
-  Several cafes, restaurants, and takeaways nearby- in the heart of the community and opposite Buile Park.
-  Good links via the train into Manchester and Salford City Centre.
-  Nearby bus stop with regular local services into Salford and Manchester.

The service is located in Salford facing Buile Hill Park with excellent transport links into Salford City Centre and into Manchester. The service is located near a host of local facilities and amenities so the people who live here are fully integrated into their community and taking part in activities they enjoy.

Parkview is a large spacious detached house with a range of communal areas. People have their own individual rooms, with space to interact with others if they choose.
