WHAT OUR CQC REPORT SAYS...

Inspected and rated

Good

SAFE

Some people went out independently and agreements were in place to promote independence and the staff also considered risks and actions to take if people were late returning home or missing. One person told us, "I always let the staff know where I am and when I'm going to come back. They have a number to call if they are worried, but I know how to keep safe."

CARING

Relatives told us staff were kind, caring and compassionate. One relative said, "The staff are very caring and very responsible and make sure they are safe and well." They told us that staff involved them with making decisions, setting goals and planning care to ensure people were supported the way they wanted.

EFFECTIVE

The staff felt they had the necessary skills to support people and had been given opportunities to get to know people and further training. One member of staff told us, "We have a lot of opportunities to go on training here. It's good because we all do the same training and this helps with how well we work together."

RESPONSIVE

A social care professional told us, "The staff are very proactive and getting people out and about and involved." People enjoyed visiting friends, going to local social groups and places of interest as well as enjoying meals out. People were also supported to attend educational courses opportunities to carry out voluntary work

WELL-LED

One member of staff told us, "We have team meetings where we can talk about what's happening and any changes, but it's focused on people living here. We also have time each morning before people get up to talk about what we can do better and make different plans."
