WHAT OUR CQC REPORT SAYS...

Inspected and rated

Good

SAFE

Risk assessments were individualised to each person's specific needs. One person's care record evidenced the need for a specialist diet due to a risk of choking. Another person's care record identified what staff needed to do to keep them safe outside of the home.

CARING

Staff were kind and compassionate. People were treated with dignity and respect. A relative told us, "My [relative] lived in several different homes before coming here, but never settled. Here, [relative] is treated like a member of the family."

EFFECTIVE

Staff worked with other agencies to provide consistent, effective, timely care; Supporting people to live healthier lives, access healthcare services and support. Staff worked collaboratively with other professionals to meet people's needs.

RESPONSIVE

The care people received was tailored to their individual needs. Staff had in-depth knowledge of the history and preferences of people that used the service, this enabled them to support according to people's preferences.

WELL-LED

The culture of the service ensured the registered manager was accessible to staff and people using the service. The registered manager was hands-on in their approach to leadership.
